Advises on Property Law

Josie is a member of the property team in Guernsey and she deals with all aspects of residential conveyancing, including sales and purchases, sometimes involving complicated and extensive title research, boundary advice and agreements.

Career

Josie joined Carey Olsen in 2015 and worked as part of the internal finance team until 2021, having responsibility for the financial aspects of conveyancing matters. She joined the property team in early 2021 and has built a wealth of knowledge in that short time, working on several complex and unusual conveyancing matters.
